

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~SECRET~~

If document is part of classified information file,
If separated from file, document is unclassified.

FOIAB3B1

SUPPORT REQUIREMENTS FOR USH-19,

25X1A7B

1. Space and Facilities:

- a. One established monitoring position plus minimum of 60 sq. ft. of adaptable working space; or if no established position available, a minimum of 100 sq. ft. of adaptable working space. Maximum working space will be 200 sq. ft. (Note: Not all of this space may be utilized during the trial period, but it is considered necessary for a permanent operation.)
- b. Access to short-wave directional antennas, and medium-wave (540-1600 kcs) if any, bearing in the approximate sector 90 through 270 degrees True North.
- c. Housing:
(1) Trial Period: BOQ accomodation for male professional civilian, grade GS-9.
(2) Permanent: Need would be for one 3 or 4 bedroom dependents quarters, if available. Civilian, grade GS-10.

2. Equipment:

- a. If available on location, one (or preferably two) sensitive communications receiver in good condition, with BFO but designed for voice work and radio frequency range 540-20,000 kcs or better (i.e. Collins, Hammarlund, RCA or equivalent).
- b. Related antenna patching or switching devices.
- c. Access to associated support equipment, such as frequency measurement device.
- d. Recorder, preferably magnetic tape, with small supply of

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

record blanks (NOTE: Recording is normally for operator's own local needs only, as checking broadcast material.)

e. Desk and/or table, posture chair, typewriter and small file.

3. Services:

a. Equipment maintenance service, or access to service facility if no maintenance available.

b. Limited electrical communication with Washington as occasional need arises. (Communications are normally clear-text. ☐ FOIAB3B1 Headquarters is a tributary of both ☐ and 25X1A2G ☐ in military communications).

25X1A2G

4. Amenities:

a. Messing privileges during trial period.

b. Ship's Store, Commissary privileges as available (in permanent arrangement)

c. Base recreational privileges.

d. Dependent schooling privileges, if available (for permanent arrangement only).

~~SECRET~~